DOCTOR HOLLYWOOD

A collaboration between ARTS San Antonio, Gemini Ink and the McNay welcomes Carroll Cartwright, a Hollywood “script doctor” known for rescuing screenplays such as Jumanji, Pearl Harbor and Where the Money Is. An event designed for writers and film lovers alike, Cartwright discusses developing as a writer who can balance craft while writing for an industry. His latest project, What Maisie Knew (a contemporary adaptation of the Henry James novel about a young girl caught in the middle of custody battle), screens after the talk, to be followed by a Q&A.
