

"Over the Rainbow"
by Jordyn, age 8

Sunshine Cottage School for Deaf Children was founded in 1947 to teach children with hearing impairment to use their residual hearing to listen and talk. The school's innovative programs and nurturing learning environment enable students to live and flourish in a world of sound.

Proceeds from the sale of this card benefit the children and the school.

John,
Thank-you so much for allowing
the students of Sunshine Cottage attend your recent production. They loved it and talked about it all afternoon. Again, thanks!
